 - b. If the applicant cannot supply the documentation within the owner's specified timeframe, the owner may grant the applicant an extension of not more than 30 days, but only if the applicant certifies that the documentation is temporarily unavailable and additional time is needed to collect and submit the required documentation. (Although the extension period may not exceed 30 days, the owner may establish a shorter extension period based on the circumstances of the individual case.)

Prorated Assistance:

- a. If a family is eligible for prorated assistance and is not receiving continued assistance, and if the termination of the family's assistance is not temporarily deferred, the amount of assistance the family receives is adjusted based on the number of family members who are eligible compared with the total number of family members. The prorated assistance is calculated by multiplying a family's full assistance by a fraction.
- b. Section 8. For Section 8 assistance programs, the number of eligible people in the family divided by the total number of persons in the family determines the fraction. Then, this fraction is multiplied by the full assistance payment. The reduced assistance payment results in a revised tenant rent for the family.

Temporary Deferral of Termination of Assistance:

- a. Families that were receiving assistance on June 19, 1995 under on of the programs covered by the non-citizen rules are eligible for temporary deferral of termination of assistance. If the following applies: Family has no eligible members; or mixed family qualifies for prorated assistance (and does not qualify for continued assistance) and chooses not to accept the partial assistance.
- b. The deferral allows the family time to find other suitable housing before HUD terminates assistance. During the deferral period, the family continues to receive its current level of assistance.

The owner's determination should be based on the following: A vacancy rate of less than 5% for affordable housing of the appropriate unit size in the housing market for the area in which the housing is located; The local jurisdiction's Consolidated Plan, if applicable; Availability of affordable housing in the market area; and Evidence of the family's efforts to obtain affordable housing in the area.
 - b.) To terminate assistance, the owner must determine that affordable housing is available, or that the maximum deferral period has been reached.
 - c.) If eligible for prorated assistance, the family may request to begin to receive prorated assistance at the end of the deferral period.
 - d.) Affordable housing for the purpose of temporary deferral of assistance is housing that: Is not substandard; is the appropriate size for the family; and can be rented by the family for an amount less than or equal to 125% of the family's total tenant payment (TTP), including utilities.

Section 8 properties, depending upon the effective date of the initial Housing Assistance Payments (HAP) contract for the property. The income limits that will be allowed at the property are:

INCOME LIMITS AT FRONTIER ESTATES:

The maximum income amount cannot exceed the following:

Extremely Low (30%)	One Person.....	11,750	Two Person.....	13,400
Very Low (50%)	One Person.....	19,600	Two Person.....	22,400
Low (80%0	One Person.....	31,300	Two Person.....	40,250

The above limits are based on the Median Income of Dickinson County (FY 2010) which is $55,200 per year. Income from all sources are counted, including employment, pensions, Social Security, interest and dividends from investments, IRAs, Annuities, farm income, rental income, business income and any other income generating entities.

2. These income limits are revised annually to ensure that federal rental assistance is only provided to low-income families. This limit depends upon the type of subsidy and family size.
3. HUD establishes and publishes income limits for each county or Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA) in the country. The income limits are based upon the medial income of the geographic area for which the limit is established.
4. Income limits are published annually in the Federal Register and are available from the local HUD office, or on-line at www.huduser.org.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS: Anyone who wishes to secure housing must fully complete the application form provided by management. The information provided must contain enough information for management to make an initial determination of the income eligibility of the household and sufficient information to screen Applicant's prior landlord history. Applicants must consent to management's requirement to secure a credit and criminal background history and must provide sufficient information to enable management to secure such reports.

CHANGES IN INCOME FOR WAITING LIST APPLICANTS: If an Applicant's income changes to an amount which is no longer eligible under the limitations of the assistance program by the time the application reaches the top of the waiting list, written notice will be given advising the Applicant that: (1) they are not presently eligible for assistance under the Section 8 program; (2) the Applicant could become eligible if the household income decreases, the number of household members changes, the Income Limit changes, or HUD grants an exception to the Income Limits, and (3) asks whether or not the Applicant wishes to remain on the waiting list.

PREFERENCES: Management will observe preferences listed below, prioritized in the order of the list:

Income Targeting

In accordance with the Qualified Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998, at least forty (40%) percent of households admitted in any fiscal year will be those whose incomes are 30% or less of the medial income for households of a similar size in the area. The income limits required to qualify in this category of "extremely low income" are listed on the income limits chart submitted by HUD.

The method to be used to obtain the required income targeting for applicants on the waiting list is described as:

In chronological order, Frontier Estates will select eligible applicants from the waiting list whose incomes are at or below the extremely low-income limit to fill the first 40% of expected vacancies in the property. Once this target has been reached, we will admit applicants in waiting list order.

Accommodation for Existing Residents: Requests for accommodation from existing residents requiring unit transfers will take priority over all waiting list Applicants. Accommodation results when a handicap or disability requires a change or repairs which make it easier for the existing resident to reside in the community.

Transfers for Existing Tenants: No waiting list preference shall be granted to households seeking transfers (for reasons other than accommodation) between units. Households seeking such transfers shall receive only chronological status on the waiting list.

A. Management Initiated Transfer: Due to changes in the health of residents, it may become necessary to move a tenant from a higher floor to the first floor. The tenant may not be able to take the stairs in case of an emergency, therefore necessitating a move. This move would be classified as a "reasonable accommodation" and therefore the cost of the move will be paid for by Frontier Estates. If the tenant refuses the move, the tenant may remain in the unit and pay HUD approved "Market Rent". The tenant must move within 30 days after the owner notifies the family that a 1st Floor Unit is available. If the tenant specifically needs a Handicapped Enabled apartment, and not just a 1st Floor apartment, then they can remain in their present apartment at the subsidized rate, until such time that a handicap apartment vacates.

B. Tenant Initiated Transfer: If a tenant wants to move to another unit for reasons other than medical, the following requirements would apply – Written requests must be submitted to management stating the reason for the move. The date of the request will be used to determine priority in chronological order along with the requests submitted by other residents. The request for a handicapped unit will not be granted unless a medical reason is given by the tenant's doctor. The cost of the move, and the clean-up cost of the tenant's present apartment will be the responsibility of the tenant. When the tenant is notified that there is a vacant apartment, the move must occur within 30 days of notification.

Units Specifically Designed for Disabled or Handicapped Persons: Preference will be granted to Disabled or Handicapped Persons (who otherwise qualify) in units designed for Handicapped or Disabled Persons. Existing residents will be given priority over move-ins. The management agent shall give first preference for a unit specifically designed for Disabled or Handicapped Persons to otherwise qualified Families who have a household member who is Handicapped or Disabled. This preference will be granted upon proper notification by Applicant and verification of need by management.

Extremely Low Income Households: Extremely Low Income Households, defined as households with income not exceeding 30% of the area median income (AMI) established by HUD and periodically updated, shall receive preference over households on the waiting list with incomes exceeding 30% AMI. Extremely Low Income Households will be selected from the waiting list in chronological order, according to the INCOME TARGETING rules listed above. Frontier Estates will continue to market units with efforts to reach the Extremely Low Income population. If there are no Extremely Low Income Households on the waiting list, other households will be housed in the order in which they have applied.

Procedures for accepting applications

All information relative to previous housing, family income, assets, and medical expenses (if applicable) will be verified and all verified findings will be documented and recorded in the applicant file. Failure to sign this form will result in denial of assistance.
3. Failure to respond within 14 days to the Agent's requests for documentation or information to process the application may result in withdrawal of an application from further processing. The Agent may make exceptions to the procedures described herein to take into account circumstances beyond the applicant's control, including medical problems or extreme weather conditions.
4. The Agent will offer aid to the applicant in completing the application, explain the tenant selection process, define preferences, and explain the verification process with respect to preferences.
5. Every application must be completed and signed by the head of the household. Household members 18 years or older, including any personal care attendant (PCA), must sign a release to conduct criminal, credit, and landlord history references, provided that credit information for personal care attendant is not necessary because their income is not included in the household income calculation. Personal care attendants are defined as a person who resides with a household member with a disability and who (a) provides necessary assistance in activities of daily living to such household member insofar as he or she requires such assistance on account of his or her disability; (b) is not obligated for support of the household member; (c) is paid for the fair value of such assistance; and (d) would not be residing in the unit except to provide such necessary assistance to the household member. 8. I

PROCESSING STEPS: Frontier Estates apartments shall be rented and occupancy maintained on a first-come, first-served basis with preferences taken into consideration. All persons wishing to be admitted to the development or placed on the waiting list must complete an application. Prospective tenants submitting incomplete applications will not be considered for occupancy. The initial application shall be timed and dated when received, and the resident manager shall maintain at the rental office a chronological list of all Applicants. Preference households and existing residents requiring unit transfers because of accommodation will move ahead of chronological status Applicants. Applicants shall be offered housing (after meeting all selection criteria requirements including the verification process), placed on the waiting list, or declined. The Applicant must contact the development's resident manager every 120 days to remain on the waiting list. Applicants who fail to provide acceptable landlord references, or who have a criminal background will be notified that they have been removed from the waiting list.

When an apartment becomes available:

The resident manager will first determine if the INCOME TARGETING GOAL OF 40% has been met. If the goal of 40% has not been met, the resident manager will pick the next Extra Low Income applicant and offer the available apartment to that person. If that person cannot, for whatever reason, accept the offer, than the resident manager will proceed down the list of ELI's until he finds one that will accept the offer. If there are no ELI's left on the list, then advertising in the newspaper will commence until one is found.

When an appropriate unit is available, the waiting list shall be reviewed to identify the Applicant who meets preference criteria or whose name is chronologically at the top of the list.

The resident manager shall interview the Applicant; confirm and update all information provided on the application; obtain current information of income, expense and Family composition as applicable and necessary to certify eligibility and compute the resident's share of the rent. Each Applicant will be required to evidence citizenship and comply with the Social Security Disclosure Regulations which means each Family member, age six years or older, must supply his/her Social Security number and verification of the same. The Applicant shall be informed that a final decision on eligibility cannot be made until all verifications are complete and current income has been verified. Applicants, whose position on the waiting list enables application processing, will receive one notice of housing availability. If the Applicant is unable or decides not to complete the application process, the Applicant shall be removed from the waiting list and must reapply for eligibility. The Agent agrees that, upon reasonable notice, they will amend this plan to satisfy such changes. When such time comes that the tenant selection plan must be updated a copy will be forwarded to all applicants currently on the waiting list and notice of the change in the plan will be posted in the office where the rental applications are taken.
